Anyone have any Friday the 13th stories?

Thanks Lisa for keeping everyone up to date on Skeet's condition. And I also want to thank everyone for keeping Skeet in your thought's and prayers. They certainly go a long way.

Michael and I got home from Mikey's game at 12:30 this morning. The ride out to Westfield is a long ride but the ride home seems even longer. It was a slow moving game that lasted 2 1/2 hours but the result was good. Westfield State 6 Franklin Pierce 3. Mikey set up the 5th goal. Two games and 3 points. Keep up the good work.

I'm at work now and my oven is ready so I have to go and print a couple shirt orders that need to be out today.

Have a great day and I will talk to you later.

Bill

I'm on break. So I scanned a few more pics. Take a look. There will be more comming. These pics are from brother Frank's vault.
