Check out the latest recipes compliments of Cuzzin Catherine. I have had the pleasure of tasting all of these and believe me they are well worth the effort. Your family will love them.

With Thanksgiving quickly approaching, how about we start sharing our favorite holiday recipes? Could be a favorite appetizer or a soup or a delicious stuffing, maybe a dessert or even a spiked cider if that is your choice. So start jotting down the directions and send them off to me so I can post them.

When Thanksgiving is done then we can start sharing Christmas and New Year's treasures.

Thanks,
Cousin Bill
