I would like to wish all our family members and friends and anyone that happens to visit this site a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

I recieved an e-mail from cousin Anna Ingram that I would like to pass along so everyone can share in their happiness.

I just re-checked the link and it has changed. Follow the ling to Ct Guardsmen. Good luck http://www.wfsb.com/news/22047974/detail.html

Hello Everyone,

We are so excited. Rose's son is home for the holidays. We will have our family Christmas on Saturday and what a day it will be. We are so blessed to be able to be together. The web site address is the arrival in Hartford Ct. video. The soldier, Clini and his wife hugging and kissing belong to us. And the "older" woman is none other than the Nini, Barbara Muolo. http://www.wfsb.com/news/22047974/detail.html
Check it out. I don't know how long it will be there. The girl with the phone camera is Richelle, Rose's daughter and the young lady hugging her dad is Emma.

There is also an article in the Hartford Courant http://www.courant.com/news/connecticut/hc-pictures-troops-return-1222,0,2482694.photogallery picture # 3 is also them.

Dave's girlfriend Sarah will now meet the Ct. family. I guess if she can survive the Regan clan she can handle Ct. We hope your holiday is as exciting as ours.

Love, Bill & Anna
